

Bar-Ilan University, Faculty of Humanities

Tenure-Track Position in the Department of General History

The Department of General History, Bar-Ilan University, Israel, invites applications for a tenure-track position beginning fall of 2015. The successful candidate must hold a Ph.D. prior to appointment. The area of specialization is the Middle Ages with an emphasis on research dealing with conversion and /or inter-religious encounters.

The successful applicant will be a member of the Center for the Study of Conversion and Inter-Religious Encounters (I-CORE) and will receive a one-time equipment grant and an annual research grant (five years).

The successful candidate will be expected to teach in Hebrew.

➤ The deadline for applications is November, 30, 2014.

Applications must include the following:

- Curriculum Vitae.
- Outline of future research projects (2 pages)
- Electronic copies of two articles or other writing samples.
- Three letters of recommendation.

All materials should be sent electronically to Dr. Hilda Nissimi, Chair of the Department of General History, Bar-Ilan University: hilda.nissimi@biu.ac.il and to: Claude.Stuczynski@biu.ac.il on behalf of the Center for the Study of Conversion and Inter-Religious Encounters (I-CORE).

Salary and conditions will conform to Israeli University regulations. Appointment procedures will be carried out according to the rules and regulations of Bar-Ilan University and are subject to the approval of the University authorities.

The position is open to candidates without any discrimination based on gender, nationality or ethnic origins. The appointment will be based on the candidates' qualifications and the needs of the Department. Bar-Ilan University is not obligated to appoint any of the candidates who apply for the position.